

reading and writing), will not be admitted to the Special Test Examinations, unless they have passed the General Test at some previous examination, or have been exempted therefrom by special order of Government; and by G. O., 10th March 1871, no person will be admitted to the Special Tests in English who has not passed either the English or the Anglo-Vernacular branch of the General Test.

6. Candidates coming up for one or more Tests at the same time under General Rule I. will submit a single application for all such Tests. As notified under date the 3rd September 1873 no Candidate will be permitted to take up any of the Judicial Tests together with Test III, in either grade.

7. Candidates will not be allowed to appear for Examination in Tests I. A., II. A., III. A., I. B., V., and VI. in a Vernacular language, unless specially permitted by an order of Government to do so. In the latter case, Candidates should quote in their applications the date and number of such order.

8. Candidates taking up Test I. A. may, if they have done sufficiently well, and if the Commissioner permits, be passed for Pleaders in District Munsifs' Courts; but Candidates for the Test for Pleaders in District Munsifs' Courts (Test IX.) cannot be admitted to examination in any other test, nor can any person be admitted to examination in Test IX. who has not passed the General Test Examination.

9. By G. O. dated 10th June 1872, all Candidates for the Judicial Tests, both higher and lower Grades (Tests I. A., I. B., II. A., II. B., IX., and X.) will be examined in "The Indian Evidence Act I. of 1872" instead of in Norton's Law of Evidence and Kindersley's Law of Evidence, the text books in Evidence hitherto prescribed. Candidates for Tests II. A., II. B., and X. are informed that they will be examined in the new Criminal Procedure Code, Act X of 1872.

10. Candidates in the Police Department who may apply for examination in the "Police Test" alone should submit their applications direct to the Superintendent of Police, and not to the Collector of the District in which they are employed. Candidates not in the Police Department will be admitted to the Police Test on the production of a recommendation from the Superintendent of the District in which they seek employment. In each case Candidates will have to pay a fee of Rs. 4. Candidates belonging to the Police who may wish to appear for tests other than the regular Departmental Test must submit their applications to the Collectors of their respective Districts, and not to the Inspector-General of Police, in which case the ordinary rules will have to be conformed to in all respects.

11. Candidates should write their names, their fathers' names, and their house names distinctly and in full, and give their addresses in full also.

12. Candidates will not be admitted to the Examination at any other place than that named in their applications, and no Candidate will be allowed to name more than one place. To prevent mistakes Candidates should submit their applications direct to the Collectors of the Districts in which the Stations at which they desire to be examined are situated.
